

TULIPANI

2006 RODERICK VOS

DESIGN INSPIRATION

Its silhouette is the Dutch floral icon pared back to its simple outline. Its name is a nod to a love of Italian design. When Roderick Vos designed 'Tulipani' he combined the best of both nations. A single sheet of steam bent plywood—according to your preference either 'bare' or padded—rests atop an intricate wooden base: turn the 'Tulipani' upside down and you will see the beauty of the construction. In fact, you might be tempted to leave it like that, resting atop your table, feet in the air, awaiting the next sitter.

LINTELOO

DESIGNED BY RODERICK VOS

Dutch designer Roderick Vos (1965) graduated from the Design Academy Eindhoven in 1990, upon which he and his wife Claire, a textile designer, upped sticks and went to live in Surabaya, Indonesia. There, Roderick further developed his interest in Asian culture and its designs, an interest he was quite literally born with, being part Asian himself. Once back 'home' in the Netherlands, Roderick and Claire established 'Studio Roderick Vos' in beautiful Heusden Vesting, in 1999. In his design aesthetics, Roderick feels less connected with post-modernism than with the Platonic philosophy that every soul desires the good, the true and the beautiful. So, that is what he tries to achieve. 'I want to make people happy with beautifully useful pieces. Objects that exude aesthetic pleasure. Strong shapes that feel beautiful, good and true.' We at Linteloo feel he succeeds in his achievements, each and every time.

MAINTENANCE

All LINTELOO furniture has been made with love and care. Of course, we want you to enjoy it, for as long as possible. Proper maintenance will prolong its lifespan, which is why each piece of LINTELOO furniture comes with a maintenance instruction booklet, also available for download at linteloo.com Detailed information on care and cleaning, including the recommended products, can also be found at linteloo-care.nl

Upholstery: Maintenance of the upholstery obviously depends on your choice of fabric or leather. As a rule of thumb, fabric upholstery—especially when removable—is easier to clean in case of spots and spills than leather. On the other hand, leather will handle regular wear and tear better, in a sense that the odd sign of use only adds to its character.

Cushions: Again, the level of maintenance depends on your choice of filling. Down/feather-filled cushions require regular plumping up and airing. But you may prefer the firmer seating experience and hypoallergenic qualities that a 100% polyester filling provides.

Legs: The occasional wipe-down with a damp cloth is all it takes.

Solid wood: Wood is a natural product, which may scratch, shrink and expand. Keep this to a minimum by using coasters, by not putting wooden furniture too close to a heat source, and by keeping your home at a 50-60% humidity level. Oil-treated woods benefit from regular nourishment. Varnished or painted woods can simply be wiped down with a damp cloth.
